Get More for Your Money.

Incorporating audio devices into your UC deployment isn't easy. One size doesn't fit all. Matching the right audio device to the right employee work style is important to user satisfaction and increasing productivity.

The Plantronics Get Ahead program gives you a no-risk opportunity to find the right products for your team...on us! That's right. You can choose up to five complimentary products to try in your own UC environment. And when you find the products that are right for you, the deal gets even better – order 100 of the offered products and we'll add in 10 extra products for free!

And for each 10 additional products you buy, we'll add in another one. And with our UC products comes a wealth of experience in planning and deployment with our exclusive online UC toolkit.

To qualify for the Get Ahead program you need to have 250 employees and plan to deploy 100 or more UC seats. Why wait? Sign up today. With the perfect audio devices for every work style – and quality that meets the rigorous standards of 100% of the Fortune 100 – Plantronics is the smart call to ensure a successful UC deployment with both users and your CFO.
